November 17, 2021

HolicWorks Corporation

We would like to make an announcement regarding our adult BL PC game "Tokyo 24 Wards" (first released on January 29, 2019) and its Switch port "Tokyo 24 Wards -Prayer-" (scheduled to be released in 2022).

On October 24, 2021, an anime of the same name, "Tokyo 24 Wards", was announced. We would like to clarify that our company is in no way associated with said production.

At present, we are seeking the guidance of experts in this matter and remain committed to taking action as appropriate. We apologize to our users, creators, and voice actor agencies for any inconvenience or concern this may have caused.

We hope that you will continue to support our company and "Tokyo 24 Wards" in the future.

Thank you very much.
